The screenshot shows the Surf Life Saving Australia website's 'Join' page. At the top, there is a navigation menu with links: Home, News, About, Safety, What we do, Donate, Get Involved, Be safe, Sport, Nippers, and Members. A search bar is located on the right. The main content area is titled 'Join' and includes a breadcrumb trail 'Home > Members'. A welcome message states: 'Welcome to Surf Life Saving - it's great that you'd like to get involved in the movement and to make a difference. There are many ways in which you can get involved as a surf life saving volunteer, from being an active patrol member saving lives on the beach, to being an age manager for the little nippers on a Sunday or volunteering as a club official 'behind the scenes' ensuring that everything runs smoothly. To determine how to proceed from here, please use the diagram below:'. The diagram is a flowchart with a central question box: 'Have you or the person you're signing up on behalf of (e.g. your child) been a member of a surf club or surf life saving organisation within the last two years?'. Two arrows point from this question box to two separate answer boxes. The 'NO' box contains the text: 'NO: Click to join More Info'. The 'YES' box contains the text: 'YES: Click to go to the portal and create an account More Info'.
